Training and Assessment Methods and Location

The course is delivered part-time via a multi-mode delivery which includes a mix of online, workplace, and self-study approaches.

Students will have access to learning and assessment materials 24/7 via the Goodstart Institute of Early Learning online learning portal. The portal not only houses the learning and assessment materials, but also houses supporting resources to assist students in their understanding of the topics being delivered.

A Lead Trainer is assigned to each student to support the student's learning and application of the skills and knowledge as well as providing guidance in undertaking assessment activities. Lead Trainer's also facilitate additional weekly drop-in workshops via teleconference each Monday.

Goodstart Institute of Early Learning also offers students a dedicated Academic Support service to assist students with their studies. The Academic Support service is available Monday to Friday between 8.30am - 4.30pm (AEST).

Please note, it is a requirement of this course that all students complete a minimum 240 hours of Vocational Placement in an approved Early Childhood Education and Care Service. For Goodstart Early Learning employees vocational placement hours will be gained on the job as part of your employment.

Third Party or Partnership Arrangements

Goodstart Institute of Early Learning (RTO No 32215) partners with Open Colleges (RTO 90796) in the delivery of training and assessment services for this course.

What does this mean for you?

Firstly, you can be assured that our partner organisations have been fully vetted and the services they deliver regularly monitored by us.

Additionally, Goodstart Institute of Early Learning as the primary Registered Training Organisation retains responsibility for:

- Your enrolment;
- Issuing certification on satisfactory completion of nationally recognised training products;
- Issuing documentation to meet any licensing requirements;
- Course compliance i.e. that the course is delivered to the standard required by the national regulatory body;
- Stepping up if a third party delivering training and assessment closes or ceases to deliver any part of the course that you are enrolled in, and
- Notifying you should a third party be unable to fulfil its obligations in providing training and assessment services, or there are any changes to third party/partner arrangements.

We also manage and resolve any concerns, complaints, and appeals about our organisation, third parties, staff, or other learners. Please raise any issue with the Institute as per our Complaints and Appeals policy located on our website.

Course Requirements

Students are required to participate in a mandatory Student Induction session prior to commencement of their enrolment. Session times and dates will be communicated to students during the enrolment process.

Students must have access to the internet and some form of word processing software in order to undertake the learning and assessment for this course.
