In order to complete this program within the specified time, students should be submitting their assessments by week eight of the study period to allow sufficient time for marking and/or resubmission.

Units of Competency and Program Outline

This course requires satisfactory completion of the unit of competency detailed below.

Study Period	Units of Competency	Core (C) / Elective (E)	Nominal Hours
10 weeks	CHCPRT001 Identify and respond to children and young people at risk	C	40

+ To be completed externally (at cost to student) if the unit is not already held and/or current prior to commencement in this course.

Training and Assessment Methods and Location

The course is delivered part-time via a multi-mode delivery which includes a mix of online, workplace, and self-study approaches.

Students will have access to learning and assessment materials 24/7 via the Goodstart Institute of Early Learning online learning portal. The portal not only houses the learning and assessment materials, but also houses supporting resources to assist students in their understanding of the topics being delivered.

A Lead Trainer is assigned to each student to support the student's learning and application of the skills and knowledge as well as providing guidance in undertaking assessment activities. Lead Trainer's also facilitate additional weekly drop-in workshops via teleconference each Monday.

Goodstart Institute of Early Learning also offers students a dedicated Academic Support service to assist students with their studies. The Academic Support service is available Monday to Friday between 8.30am - 4.30pm (AEST).

Third Party or Partnership Arrangements

Goodstart Institute of Early Learning (RTO No 32215) partners with Open Colleges (RTO 90796) in the delivery of training and assessment services for this course.

What does this mean for you?

Firstly, you can be assured that our partner organisations have been fully vetted and the services they deliver regularly monitored by us.

Additionally, Goodstart Institute of Early Learning as the primary Registered Training Organisation retains responsibility for:

- Your enrolment;
- Issuing certification on satisfactory completion of nationally recognised training products;
- Issuing documentation to meet any licensing requirements;
- Course compliance i.e. that the course is delivered to the standard required by the national regulatory body;
- Stepping up if a third party delivering training and assessment closes or ceases to deliver any part of the course that you are enrolled in, and
- Notifying you should a third party be unable to fulfil its obligations in providing training and assessment services, or there are any changes to third party/partner arrangements.

We also manage and resolve any concerns, complaints, and appeals about our organisation, third parties, staff, or other learners. Please raise any issue with the Institute as per our Complaints and Appeals policy located on our website.

Course Requirements

There are no specialist clothing, footwear, equipment or materials required of the course. All course materials and resources are supplied as part of the course.

Students must have access to the internet and some form of word processing software in order to undertake the learning and assessment for this course.

Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning

Credit Transfer (CT) is the recognition by a registered training organisation (Goodstart Institute of Early Learning) of the qualifications, certificates and/or statements of attainment issued by other registered training organisations, universities and TAFEs. While Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) recognises the knowledge and skills you have gained through previous informal training, and past work and life experience.

If you think that you might be able to apply for CT or RPL, speak with Student Services by calling 1800 617 455 or email goodstart@goodstart.edu.au preferably before course commencement to discuss your options.

Please note – Credit Transfer does not apply for this course as there is only one unit of competency. If you already hold CHCPRT001 please do not apply for enrolment into this course.
